

Midnight Sun Press Release

Written by John Klark

Directed by Holly Mazur

Midnight Sun, a new one-act play by John Clarke will appear at Hebden Bridge Little Theatre on 13th and 14th March at 7.30pm.

Julia is older, just moved house and needs to start a new life, but is she necessarily wiser? Nina is younger, just lost her job and needs to sign on, but does she just run away? Midnight Sun is a play about two women living side by side and how, when the moon is as bright as the sun, their futures may tentatively begin.

Written by John Klark graduate of the Royal Court Young Writers' Programme and whose recent play To The Dam (24:7 Theatre Festival) received 4 star and 5 star reviews. Directed by Holly Mazur, artistic director of 3Roots Theatre Company, who has directed pieces for the Royal Exchange Studio and Contact.

Follow us on Twitter @writingfreedom / @hollymazur10

Midnight Sun is part of a double bill playing alongside Made It Theatre's new play Valedictory by Stephen Dodwell.

ENDS

www.madeittheatre.co.uk

www.8thwondercreatives.com

Contact: hello@8thwondercreatives.com